

Welcome to DeBerry Baptist Church

In a world filled with noise, opinions, and spiritual counterfeits, gathering in God's house reminds us of the one thing that never changes—the truth of the Gospel. Counterfeit Christianity may offer comfort without conviction, blessing without obedience, and religion without relationship, but the real Jesus calls us to something far deeper. Today, we lean into the words of Christ, who warned that not everyone who says "Lord, Lord" truly knows Him. Authentic faith isn't measured by appearance, emotion, or empty confession—it's revealed in a transformed heart, a surrendered life, and fruit that lasts. As we worship, may the Holy Spirit expose anything false, strengthen what is true, and draw us closer to the Savior who is the Way, the Truth, and the Life. May we leave here not with a counterfeit version of faith, but with the real thing - rooted in Christ, shaped by Scripture, and lived out with courage. May God meet you in truth today.
