

Welcome to DeBerry Baptist Church

In these days of ungodliness—when darkness seems louder, truth is often twisted, and many hearts grow cold—we gather today to remember something unshakable: God is still on the throne, His Word still stands, and His light still shines. Thank you for joining us this morning. In a world that pulls people in every direction, you chose to be in the house of the Lord, and that matters. Here, we are reminded that even when the culture drifts, Christ remains our anchor. Even when sin increases, grace abounds all the more. Even when the world grows weary, the Spirit renews those who seek Him. As we worship today, may your heart be strengthened, your faith made bold, and your hope restored. God has not called us to fear these days—He has called us to stand, shine, and stay faithful until He comes. We're glad you're here. May the presence of the Lord meet you in a powerful way. God is faithful. ~ Pastor Jeremy and Family
