

Welcome to DeBerry Baptist Church

We're grateful you are here today. As we gather, we lean into a powerful truth: Blind Obedience isn't about following God without thought—it's about trusting Him without hesitation. When the Lord speaks, His people respond. Even when the path is unclear, even when the next step feels uncertain, obedience becomes the doorway to blessing, growth, and deeper faith. Abraham stepped out without knowing where he was going. Noah built without ever seeing rain. The disciples followed Jesus without understanding the full picture. Their obedience wasn't blind to God's character—it was anchored in His faithfulness. Today, may your heart be open, your spirit attentive, and your faith courageous. God still calls. God still leads. And God still honors those who walk in obedience. May His presence guide every step you take. God is faithful. ~ Pastor Jeremy and Family
