

Welcome to DeBerry Baptist Church

There's a sacred beauty in coming before God just as we are. Today, whether your faith feels strong or your heart feels uncertain, you are welcome here. In Mark 9, a desperate father cried out, "Lord, I believe; help my unbelief." Jesus didn't reject him—He responded with compassion and power. If you come today with questions, wounds, or worries, you're in good company. God meets honest hearts. He strengthens weak knees. He grows mustard-seed faith into mountain-moving trust. As we worship, may you experience the God who sees you, loves you, and walks patiently with you. May He steady your steps, calm your doubts, and remind you that faith is not about perfection—it's about turning toward Him again and again.
