

Welcome to DeBerry Baptist Church

As we gather in the Lord's house, we step into a moment that echoes one of the most sobering scenes in Scripture. When Jesus revealed that a betrayer sat among the disciples, each one responded not with defensiveness, not with excuses, but with a humble, searching question: "Lord, is it I?" (Matthew 26:22) That question still matters for us. It reminds us that true discipleship begins with honest self-examination. Before we point outward, we look inward. Before we speak, we listen. Before we assume, we ask the Lord to reveal what we cannot see on our own. Today, may this time of worship become a sacred space where God gently searches our hearts. May He uncover anything that pulls us away from Him. May He strengthen anything that draws us closer. May He replace fear with faith, pride with humility, and uncertainty with the steady assurance of His grace.
